

6 Simple Things

You Can Do

Every Day

Towards A

POLICE-FREE FUTURE

without emailing politicians & without punching cops
in the face

HOLLER!

"Nobody Wants to be a cop any more"

♫ A top-cited reason
why is disrespect,
disparagement & verbal abuse
from the people. Cops who quit say this, too. Let that "Fuck 12!!" fly! See a cop? Bully a cop!

!!
*obviously, use your
good sense to stay safer doing so. Yelling while passing by on a bike
or car is often safer
than on foot. in a group
is often safer than alone.

WATCH!
& plan to act if required

There's a reason I2 hates Copwatch: it keeps us safe, and them on notice. Make it the norm to stop and monitor any cop interaction. Learn from established best practices & methods.

Often, though, someone in distress needs an active bystander, not just a witness. With your voice or other actions, consider ahead of time what help you can offer to those targeted for arrest, assault, or worse by the cops.

TACT!

Creating and maintaining an anti-cop culture starts at street level.

Tagging (and stickering, wheatpasting, etc) are fun and simple lower-risk ways to challenge police normalcy, while building new skills - whether by oneself or with pals. Street art demoralizes the defenders of the status quo - and cheers our accomplices.

ALL COPS ARE BASTARDS

SHUT
'EM OUT!!

Public
shaming
works - but
it's not enough
to grouse on socials.
Say it loud & proud,
Wherever you go.

"This joint
is a pig hangout?
We're eating
somewhere else."

"Y'all are having a cop
booth too?
(Count us out.)"

Most of all -
never answer
cop ?'s, and
inform yr
community
whenever 12 comes
knocking!

ACAB!

vs. reformism

Police preservationism seeps into too many spaces, and grows wherever it is unchallenged. Is the crowd chanting "prosecute the police?" Fix that - around here we GET RID OF the police! Nerds pushing "community police relations" or "community control of cops" junk? Slap on ACAB MEANS ALL sticker over that. Reformism is our enemies' tool.

PREPARE!

for when the match strikes

Ruptures, riots,
& transformations
can begin in an instant. Will you be ready?

- strong relationships
- knowing the landscape
- communication infrastructure
- direct action tools
- protective gear
- popularised.
- good op-sec
- med supplies
- a go bag
- self-defense

if lightning
strikes tomorrow,
let's be ready to
destroy policing
once & for always!

EVERYTHING IN THIS
LIL ZINE APPLIES TO PRIVATE SECURITY, THE MILITARY, & MERCENARIES

TOO!!!

fuck bootlickers,
peace pigs + collaborators

SUPPORT ALL TARGETS OF STATE REPRESSION -
EVEN THE INNOCENT

cops:
get out before
it's too late!
